

2014 “High School” Student Culinarian of the Year Scholarship

$500.00 Scholarship – Sponsored By: Choice Food Group

The MTC/ACF High School Student Culinarian of the Year Scholarship is awarded by the Middle Tennessee Chapter of the American Culinary Federation. This scholarship is given to a Secondary level culinary school student, enrolled in a Middle Tennessee High School Culinary Arts Program, who demonstrates and exhibits exemplary efforts in and out of the classroom. Student membership in the MTC/ACF chapter is not required to win this scholarship, but is suggested. Applicants who participate in chapter meetings, ACF functions and competitions, and show an interest in the local chapter may highlight these facts in the presentation of their application.

Applications must be submitted by a teacher or instructor of a High School Culinary Program and must be a current Chapter Member of the MTC-ACF in good standing. The Deadline for nominations is December 31th, 2014.

Applications are submitted to our Chapter President in person, by mail, email, or fax.

Selection Information:

The winner will be decided in a closed meeting of the Executive Board Members of the MTC/ACF. They will decide a winner based on the information contained in the applicant’s package.

What to include:

It is suggested that you be thorough and make your best effort to present your student(s). Suggested items may include but are not limited to: Color photos, copies of relevant awards or certificates, letters of recommendation, separate list of culinary accomplishments, an ACF and Local Chapter participation statement etc. The package must also include the attached basic application form. Teachers are encouraged to have students participate in putting together their application package. It is a learning tool that may help them later in their careers.
